At the Sterkfontein Caves the oldest, most complete human skeleton was discovered, and we can view the excavation site where things are still happening. It is an underground exhibition space that brings the history of humankind come to life by way of exciting activities that are entertaining, educational and interactive.

Description of tour:

The historical city of Pretoria was the centre of many dramatic events during the past 150 years.

The peaceful transition to democracy (which is hailed as one of the greatest achievements of humankind in the 20th century!) found serene expression in the moving inauguration of Pres Nelson Mandela in 1994 with the majestic Union Buildings as back-drop.

The white Afrikaners had a major impact on the history of the country.

At the colossal Voortrekker Monument the movement of the white pioneers into the interior of the country is portrayed.

The Freedom Park is witness to the turbulent history of South Africa's people finding freedom and peace in their beloved country.

Many different population groups shape the unique character of the city and the surrounding neighbourhoods.

Tour Programme:

Union Buildings, seat of government.

Marabastad: drive through this bustling multi-cultural neighbourhood and admire the beautiful Miriammen temple.

Church Square with its historical buildings and solemn statue of Pres Paul Kruger.

Voortrekker Monument: within this imposing building the friezes portray the history of the white pioneers during the Great Trek into the interior of the country.
