

HOME DINNER

Where it is:

Province: Gauteng
 Location: Pretoria

What it is:

South Africans are well-known for their hospitality and enjoy socialising with visitors. Enjoy the excellent food, wine and warm conversation which will deepen and enrich your understanding of the country and it's people.

You can choose between dinner in a white middle-class home or dinner with a black family in a township.

What to see/ do/ experience:

White family:

Drive through the middle-class and see how the majority of white South Africans live in their spacious homes behind the burglar bars. Enjoy the food, drinks, houses and company of your hosts.

Black family:

Drive through the modest but orderly neighbourhoods. See the informal shops, tent-churches, traditional healers and football insignia on the houses. Enjoy typical township fare.

